Reasons to Train the Trainer

The best option for training personnel is occasionally engaging the services of a third party organization in order to carry out the training and certification. There are nonetheless several good reasons to send some of your staff to Train the Trainer courses. Your company can benefit by making the most out of your investment. Teaching an existing staff person to train other employees is cheaper as opposed to engaging the services of somebody new. Businesses should avoid expecting individuals to take on trainer responsibilities on top of their current duties. The chosen trainer must be relieved of some of their responsibilities to be able to prevent trainer burnout.

Developing training resources internally helps to empower your company, increase its resources and encourage staff to be self-reliant. With an in-house trainer, other staff members can feel more comfortable learning new skills than they would with someone new. By internally training, new personnel can quickly be trained and brought up to speed on the equipment in case of staff turnover.
